

Australians and modern slavery

by Roscoe Howell

“As concerned citizens of Australia and the world, we should all seek to understand the sources of slavery, learn how our actions might inadvertently encourage slavery, be vigilant in identifying slavery and, to the extent that we can, take action to prevent this abhorrent practice.”

Extract from Foreword by The Hon Catherine Branson QC
President of the Australian Human Rights Commission

In slavery, one person acts like he / she owns another person

Who are slaves?

- Slavery comes in eleven forms
- What treaties and laws apply?

How do slaves get trapped?

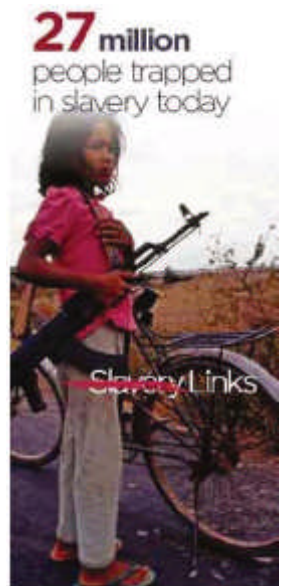

How can Australians recognise slavery?

- In this country
- When travelling overseas in the region
- When doing business or buying things

Actions for people, groups and business

- Four ‘engines’ of slavery to be dealt with
- How communities can work to free slaves

Due diligence for business

PLEASE TURN OVER ►

I want to buy Australians and modern slavery available @ $A50 each + postage $A10 in Australia		COST $A
Post my books to: Name [please print]:
Street Address:
Town or Suburb:
State and Postcode
	_____ copies of the book @$50 each + Postage in Australia @ $10 / book	$A $A
I want to join [up to 30 th June 2013] Slavery Links Australia Inc "In the event of my admission as a member, I agree to be bound by the rules of the association for the time being in force and I agree to receive notices from the association by email. I enclose payment (see below)."
e-Mail Address
Daytime Phone
Mobile Phone
Signature		--/--/20--
Membership Fee	Self assessed / Waged $A40. Unwaged $A20	$A
Send cheque or money order to: ►	Slavery Links, 3 Downing Street, Blackburn, VIC 3130	Total to pay $A ► $A